

Library Bookmark Design Contest!

Calling artists (of all ages) to share what their library and reading means to them! The Upper Skagit Library is holding an art contest for the design of a new library bookmark. The bookmark will help highlight the library's new address and hours. Upper Skagit Library staff will select ten finalists; the public will then vote for their favorites. Three winning designs will then be featured on new bookmarks for the Upper Skagit Library!

Contest Guidelines

- Anyone living within the Upper Skagit Library District may participate in this contest.
- Only one submission per person, please.
- Art submissions will be accepted in digital media, fine art (acrylics, drawings, oils, prints, or watercolors) and photography. No video or 3-D crafts will be accepted.
- Return completed artwork/entry form to the Upper Skagit Library or submit by email to upperskagitlibrary@gmail.com.
- Please submit your artwork in the provided box or supply it at this measurement ratio of 8 x 2 inches.
- Design finalists will be judged by content, color, creativity, relevance, and reproducibility. You need only design one side; the backside will contain our library information.
- All entries become the property of the Upper Skagit Library and will not be returned to the owner.
- For questions, please contact Brooke Pederson at 360-853-7939 or email bpederson@upperskagit.lib.wa.us.
